Internist Opportunity Nelson, British Columbia

Experience fulfilling work and your ideal lifestyle in the Southern Interior of BC at Kootenay Lake Hospital in Nelson. Here, in the Internal Medicine division you can expect an excellent working environment with a highly collegial medical/surgical and allied health staff. In this position you will be working with two experienced general internists providing in and out-patient consultations, staffing hospital-based chronic diseases clinics and diagnostics. As there are no mandatory local on-call responsibilities - you can finally enjoy your personal time! When it's time to end the work day, say good bye to long commutes and hello to your family and friends as you spend time together enjoying endless lifestyle opportunities and adventures in our four season's playground.
