

General Internists

Unique Short Term Opportunities

Nanaimo, Vancouver Island

The Division of Internal Medicine at Nanaimo Regional General Hospital has a unique opportunity for Internal Medicine specialists to provide short term coverage, ranging from a few days to weeks, in Nanaimo on beautiful Vancouver Island.

Nanaimo, population 85,000, is a growing and vibrant urban center situated on the east coast of Vancouver Island, located approximately 100 kilometers north of Victoria and offers excellent access via commercial flights, float plane or ferry to Vancouver. Nanaimo is the outdoor enthusiasts' paradise, providing year round access to a wide array of recreational activities including kayaking, windsurfing, mountain biking, fishing, hiking, and golfing. Nanaimo offers fantastic beaches, lakes, and rivers as well great spots for camping. The City of Nanaimo puts on events all summer including concerts and community events with a focus on activities in the remarkable waterfront in the center of the city. There is also a busy downtown sector with plenty of restaurants, shops, and art galleries to enjoy.

The Nanaimo Regional General Hospital (NRGH) is the primary referral center for central Vancouver Island, providing services to an immediate population of 125,000 and secondary referral services for a population of 330,000. The hospital has 224 beds with excellent diagnostic services. There is a dedicated (closed) ICU managed by Intensivists, renal dialysis unit and a cancer center.

Eligible applicants must hold Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada certification in Internal Medicine and be eligible for full licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC and participate in paid on-call coverage.

Why not spend some time this summer exploring the wonderful waterfront community of Nanaimo? Generous remuneration, reimbursement of travel expenses and daily per diem available.
