

Located in Durham Region, Port Perry is a town of approximately 10,000 people situated 1 hour north-east of Toronto on the picturesque Lake Scugog. It is a quaint community with a lovely Victorian downtown, good schools, and a close proximity to various outdoor activities such as hiking and skiing.

We are currently looking for a General Internal Medicine Specialist

Our local hospital has 26 beds and our 34 family physicians manage inpatient care. We also have 3 general surgeons. Our family doctors manage the ER, OB, assist with surgery, and do palliative care.

Physician offices are located across the street from the hospital at Medical Associates of Port Perry. We are seeking a general internist willing to see the full gamut of medicine patients. This includes home call at the hospital and an office at Medical Associates. Supervising nuclear stress testing is an option as well.
