INTERNISTS WANTED

Opportunity Details

Bridgewater - South Shore Regional Hospital

Join a group of seven. Subspecialties include General Internal Medicine, Cardiology, Gastroenterology, Respiriology, and Intensive Care. Training or experience in Cardiology or Endocrinology a bonus. EMR: MedAccess. South Shore Regional offers echocardiography, exercise stress testing with nuclear imaging and dobutamine stress testing, pacemaker insertion and follow up, endoscopy (therapeutic gastroscopy and colonoscopy), PFTs and a Sleep Lab. There is a Cardiac Rehab Clinic managed by a Nurse Practitioner in collaboration with Internal Medicine Physicians.

The SSRH is a community site for the Internal Medicine program at Dalhousie University with approximately 6-7 residents per year. This provides an opportunity to work as a preceptor with medical students & residents.

Incumbent is expected to participate in the call schedule for ICU and IM as well as provide outpatient care appropriate to their subspecialty. Call covers the SSRH along with offering advice and transferring patients from the nearby Fishermen's Memorial Hospital in Lunenburg and Queen's General Hospital in Liverpool.

Bridgewater is a waterfront town on the south shore of Nova Scotia, less than 1 hour from Halifax. It offers affordable housing in a semi-urban setting with lots of amenities including the Lunenburg County Lifestyle Centre which has a hockey arena, six lane 25-metre swimming pool and library. Visit the Bridgewater website at www.Bridgewater.ca for more information.
