

INTERNAL MEDICINE JOB PRINCE RUPERT, BC

We are seeking someone who is passionate about rural medicine and outdoor adventure. If you're looking to spend less time commuting and more time by the ocean, our Internal Medicine opportunity might be for you.

Join an incredibly supportive group of family physicians and specialists caring for the diverse population of Prince Rupert and the surrounding villages. You will be joining an experienced Internist in Prince Rupert and have support from the IM team in nearby Terrace. This a unique opportunity to create the practice you want and achieve a work-life balance in a beautiful, coastal city.

Prince Rupert Regional Hospital is a 25 bed facility offering a full range of services including diagnostics, ultrasound, CAT scan, surgery, emergency, acute care and extended care. In addition to the incredible family physicians, there is also local Obstetrics and Gynecology, General Surgery, Orthopaedics, Internal Medicine. Specialists from the lower mainland and nearby Terrace also visit regularly.

Prince Rupert is a marine-based port city with one-of-a-kind wilderness exploration and wildlife viewing experiences on Northwest BC's Pacific Coast. It's also a popular stop on various Alaskan cruises. Located 721 km (447 miles) west of Prince George on Highway 16, Prince Rupert is the land, air, and water transportation hub of British Columbia's North Coast, and home to 13,500 people. The city sits at the mouth of the Skeena River, surrounded by Chatham Sound and many small, uninhabited islands.

The area is perfect for exploring and discovering the fascinating history and customs of local First Nations people. Prince Rupert is recognized as one of the world's largest and leading ports and port facility expansion in the area ensures a multitude of economic opportunities now and in the future.
