

CSIM NEW INVESTIGATOR AWARD 2023

Terms of Reference

The New Investigator Award is offered by the Canadian Society of Internal Medicine in recognition of excellence in the field of general internal medicine research by a new investigator.

Nominees must satisfy the following requirements:

- Is a Full Member of the Canadian Society of Internal Medicine (in good standing with dues paid).
- Is certified by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada and licensed to practice in Canada.
- Has held full-time faculty appointment in Canada for a period of up to 7 years (cumulative, excluding leaves of absence) at the competition deadline (e.g. faculty appointment that provides eligibility to apply for grants and/or supervise trainees).
- Has not previously been a recipient of the New Investigator Award.

Assessment will be based on the following criteria:

- Productivity in research (e.g. publications and grants).
- Initiation and early development of a promising thematic program of research in general internal medicine.
- Impact or potential impact of research.
- Relevance to IM/GIM in Canada.

The award:

The recipient will present a lecture relevant to the target audience (IM/GIM physicians) relating to their research area (honoraria not provided) during the 2023 CSIM Annual Meeting, October 11-14, 2023 in Quebec City, QC. The recipient will receive a complimentary conference registration, economy-fare travel and hotel accommodation (one-night standard room and taxes at the host hotel) to attend the meeting.

The recipient will:

- Receive a certificate of recognition.
- Be invited to participate in other Meeting events such as oral/poster presentation judging.
- Be encouraged to submit their work to the Canadian Journal of General Internal Medicine.
- Be invited to join the CSIM Research/QI Committee.
- Be announced via CSIM's website, social media, e-newsletter, and/or the CJGIM.

The application package must include the following:

Please send each document as separate PDFs with clear file names (e.g., CV_John_Smith_NIA.pdf.)

1. The candidate's current curriculum vitae.
2. Two* letters of support outlining the candidate's research accomplishments and the significance of the candidate's contributions to the field of general internal medicine. If a major part of the candidate's research has been done as a group, the candidate's role in the work should be specified.
Additional letters of support will not be reviewed.*
3. A personal reflection from the nominee on the impact or potential impact and pertinence of their research to GIM and how their research portfolio fits within the subspecialty of GIM (up to 300 words).
4. Summary (up to two pages) highlighting up to five of the candidate's most important papers, especially those pertaining to the areas which define the GIM subspecialty (include reprints of any articles which are not open access).

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS: MAY 15, 2023
Submit applications via email only to info@csim.ca

NOTE: Please advise the CSIM office promptly if you do not receive a Notice of Receipt of Submission within 72 hours of your submission. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure the submission is received and late or missing submissions will not be accepted. Failure to comply with the application process and submitting incomplete applications may result in rejected applications.