

CSIM Awards and Calls for Abstracts

Visit csim.ca/awards-abstracts for more information, deadlines, and to apply.

The Hui Lee Health Promotion Scholarship

To promote excellence in health promotion among general internal medicine residents and physicians.

Call for Clinical Abstracts

Trainees are invited to submit abstracts to the Ted Giles Clinical Vignettes Session. These awards recognize the best oral presentations held during the CSIM Annual Meeting.

Call for Research and Quality Improvement Abstracts

These awards acknowledge the best oral and poster presentations by trainees held during the CSIM Annual Meeting.

CSIM Education and Research Fund

Support of educational and research activities of CSIM members and associates.

CSIM Medical Education Award

To support, promote, and recognize the IM/GIM medical education activities of CSIM members and associates.

Funding of Educational and Wellness Events

Support of events such as GIM career nights, journal clubs, wellness activities.

Dr. David Sackett Senior Investigator Award

In recognition of excellence in the field of internal medicine research by a senior Canadian general internist.

New Investigator Award

In recognition of excellence in the field of internal medicine research by a young investigator.

Dr. Mahesh Raju Awards for Mentorship – Atlantic Canada only

GIM Faculty Research Showcase

The GIM Faculty Research Showcase is a mechanism to add topics to the program after the program has been finalized and to highlight the research programs of Canadian general internists.

The CSIM Osler Awards

Presented annually to an individual(s) demonstrating excellence in achievement in the field of GIM.

Submit to the Canadian Journal of General Internal Medicine

Article processing fees are waived for CSIM Members and Associates. Learn more at www.cjgim.ca.