

CSIM Medical Education Award 2025 Terms of Reference

The CSIM Medical Education Award supports, promotes, and recognizes the medical education activities in Internal Medicine and General Internal Medicine of CSIM Members and Resident Associates.

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY

- CSIM Full Members (in good standing with dues paid) licensed to practice in Canada.
- Residents who are enrolled in a Canadian internal medicine or general internal medicine residency program and who are CSIM Resident Associates.

PROJECT ELIGIBILITY

- Research or quality improvement projects are eligible if related to medical education.
- “In progress” projects may be submitted if a majority of the work is complete.
- Projects completed while in undergraduate training are not eligible for submission.
- A project may be submitted only once; co-applicants are not accepted.
- Previous recipients of this award are eligible to apply with a new project.

CRITERIA

Consideration will be given to:

- The quality of the proposal.
- The project’s relevance to the practice of IM/GIM in Canada.
- The project’s potential or demonstrated impact on the teacher and/or learner.
- The applicant’s original work involving innovation, leadership and research in the field of medical education.

New or ongoing projects which are not yet complete may be eligible under the CSIM Education and Research Fund. A project may only be submitted to either the CSIM Medical Education Award OR the CSIM Education and Research Fund in the same year and not to both.
