EASY SUBMISSION PROCESS

Our user-friendly online submission platform is highly intuitive and offers authors a range of extensive services.

HIGH EDITORIAL STANDARDS

We value rigorous peer review and are committed to ensuring each article we publish meets the highest ethical standards.

PUBLISHING TECHNOLOGY

UTP Online is an innovative platform that hosts research by some of the most influential scholars of our time. Offered in HTML, PDF, and ePub formats, articles provide authors with an immersive experience that may feature vibrant colour images and a variety of other multimedia elements.

OPEN ACCESS MODELS

UTP has long been a supporter of fair and responsible open access practices and policies that benefit the global research community. UTP is proud to provide a number of open access models, including Subscribe to Open (S2O), as well as Green and Gold options.

TIMELY PUBLICATION

UTP has developed a sophisticated workflow that quickly moves articles from acceptance through copyediting, layout, and online publication well before the issue is published, greatly reducing the time between submission and publication.

DISCOVERABILITY AND READERSHIP

Our expert team works with authors to maximize discoverability and ensure publications reach key audiences. Marketing efforts are wide and international and include print and digital advertising; promotion on our social media platforms and owned media channels; representation at conferences; abstracting and indexing services; and library sales support.

CALLS FOR PAPERS

Many University of Toronto Press journals have open calls for papers with rolling deadlines, while others have individual volume, special issue, and themed section calls for papers with specific deadlines.

Explore current calls for papers, or visit individual journal pages for submissions information, requirements, and deadlines.
